Introduction

DC School of Management and Technology (DCSMAT), Vagamon, started in 2002 as a focused 'management only' institution located in a remote area in the district of Idukki, Kerala. It was founded by the DC Kizhakemuri Foundation. The foundation was set up by Padma Bhushan DC Chacko who was a pioneering entrepreneur in publications under the name DC Books. From the beginning, the publisher, now the largest in Malayalam, focused on supporting emerging but little-known authors. In continuance of the spirit of supporting the talented but less privileged first-time authors and grooming them into outstanding authors through publishing their work, the family of DC Chacko established DCSMAT in 2002 as a fully residential management institute in a remote area with the twin purpose of developing young minds into leaders in general and business leaders in particular and to bring the light of development to the area. The founders of the school went ahead despite advice to set up the school in a more developed area, supported the students from the North East in the initial decade when management education was not developed in the North Eastern regions of India. Following this spirit, the school continues to support local entrepreneurship within the premises bear witness to the spirit of DC Chacko – enabling the endowed but less privileged to bloom. This spirit finds its way into the vision and mission of DCSMAT, Vagamon.

The legal entity that runs DCSMAT, Vagamon is DC Kizhakemuri Foundation, is a registered charitable organization No. K 249/2001 registered under the 12th Travancore-Cochin Literary, Scientific and Charitable Societies Registration Act, 1955.

1.1 Vision & Mission Statements:

The vision of DCSMAT, Vagamon is to "Endeavour persistently to Develop Leaders and thinkers for industry and society through innovative academic practices."

The mission components are:

M1. We focus on imparting Knowledge for stakeholders to create and develop professionalism in the business world.

M2. We focus on innovation and dynamism in academic processes for developing leadership skills and thinking processes.

M3. We facilitate the personal growth and transformation of Stakeholders.

M4. We take initiatives to imbibe qualities among our stakeholders for a better orientation to society and sustainability.

1.2 PEOs Statements (5)

The MBA program of DCSMAT is expected to result in achieving the following Program Educational Objectives (PEOs).

PEO1: To showcase the quality of global standards within its competitive environment, regardless of the endeavor in which it is engaged.

PEO2: Demonstrate team spirit and leadership capabilities to bring the right kind of momentum for the organization to succeed.

PEO3: To become better citizens by acquiring social awareness through ethical and moral practices in the work environment.

PEO4: The ability to create, innovative and strategic ideas to become successful entrepreneurs.

1.4 Formulation Process (15)

The stakeholders get connected to the organization through the vision and mission. Hence we acknowledge that taking into consideration the views of all stakeholders is important while creating a vision, mission, and PEOs. The rationale for establishing DCSMAT is the spirit of the founder of DC Books. The founder became a leader in publishing by supporting first-time, little-known authors. Therefore, innovation, entrepreneurship, societal values, and ethics have naturally found a place in the vision of the school.

The first step was formulating the vision. This was done by incorporating the views of the founder, the Board of Governors, the founding director, managers, educationists, and entrepreneurs. The school which started in 2002 grew rather rapidly and it was time for the school to formulate its vision and mission formally. The current vision came into existence in 2006 though not as formalized as it is now. From the beginning, the school had focused on outcome-based education leading to learner success. The founding director, the late Prof. Sreekumar, a fellow of IIM (A), had a profound influence on the conceptualization and operation of the school and following the IIM model created a collegial and decentralized structure with the Faculty Council (FC) being the center of decision-making, self-evaluation and quality.

The process of making a vision, mission, and PEOs was therefore driven by the FC. The FC nominates a team for seeking input from the stakeholders, doing a scan of the environment, arriving at the vision and mission. These were presented to the FC, followed by refinement and final presentation to the Board of Governors (BoG) followed by modification and adoption. This collegial, empowered, bottom-up model incorporating all stakeholders is a hallmark of the process in the school on matters of importance. See Figure 1.1 for the process.

The PEO and PO Formulation Process

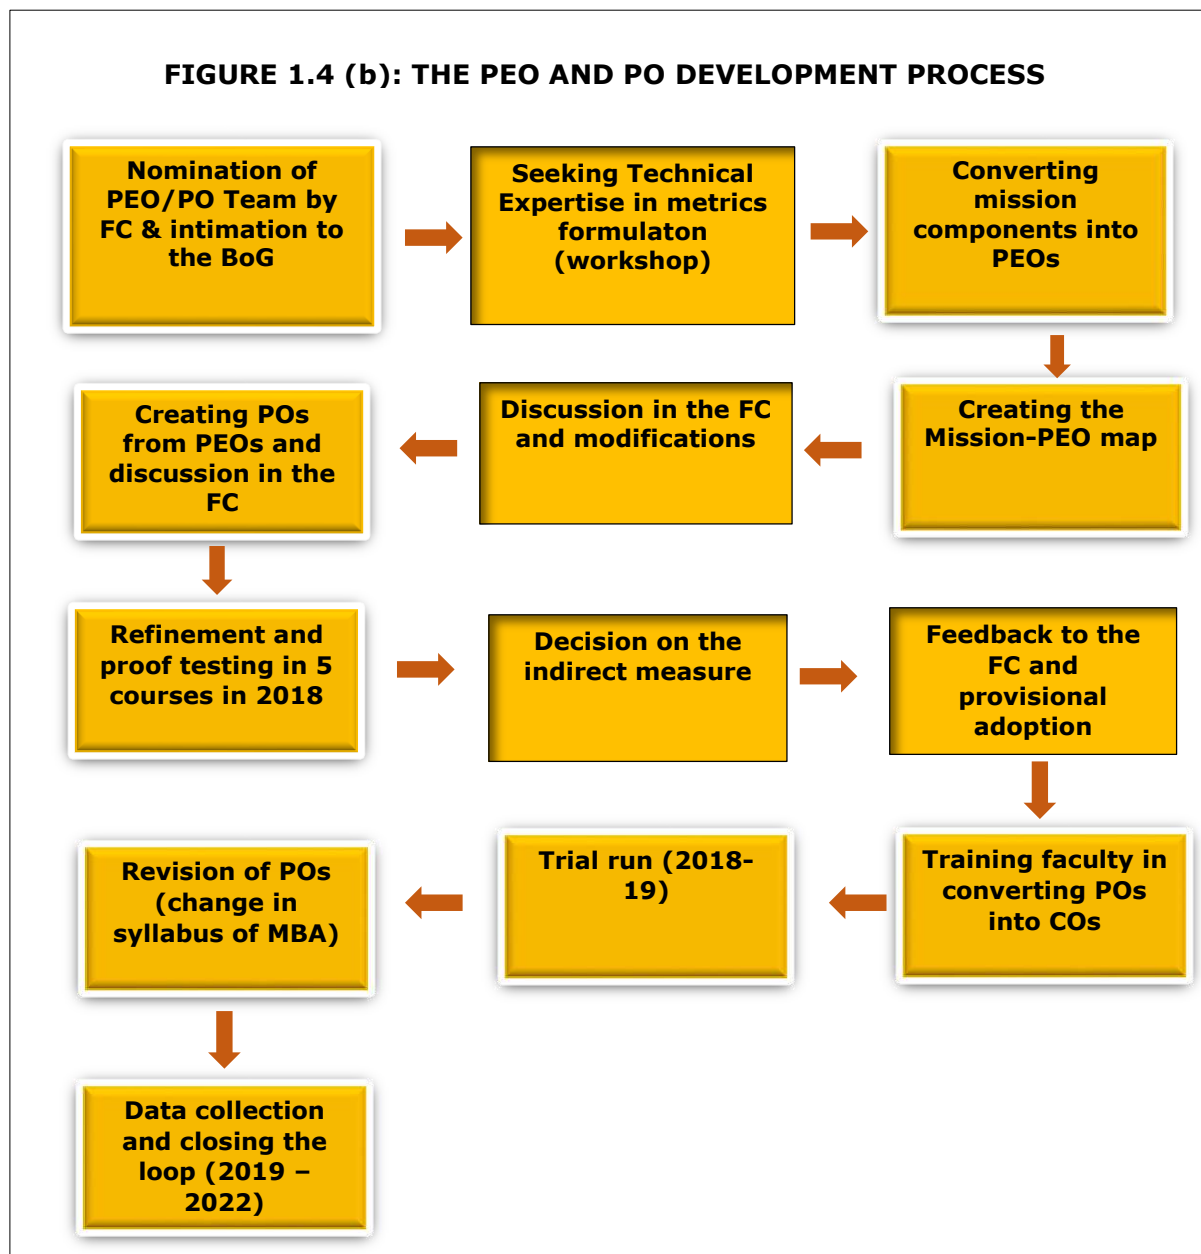

The formulation of PEOs and POs is a more technical exercise and requires some expertise in designing metrics. One of the challenges was that while the university syllabus of MG University, Kottayam defines the POs of the program and these may not be fully aligned to the mission. This demands an innovative approach to meet the requirements of outcome-based education for learner success. The university syllabus gives the Course Outcomes (COs) also. Further, the university examination marks (question-wise) would not be available, to extract the data from the university examinations thereby compelling the formulation team to find ways of measuring COs and POs using the internal assessments. It took inspiration from the stand-alone institutions that run PGDM to do this and decided to create metrics from the internal assessment.

Direct Measure. The model examination which resembles the university examination and the assignments were found to be a effective assessment events to measure COs and consequently the POs and PEOs. This is taken as a direct measurement contributing to 80% weight in the assessment.

Indirect Measure. An indirect measure for 20% weight was studied by the PO formulation team. Getting input from the exit survey was an obvious option. The second was input from the industry. However, for any supervisor to comment about the competencies indicated in the PEOs, a student who completed the program would have to work for a while. While input from the employer was an option, it was felt that the No of inputs could be only a few. So, while these were incorporated into the measurement matrices, a third metric was hotly debated and adopted; i.e., self-report on the competencies embedded in the PO exhibited during the co-curricular activities, especially the club activities. The club activities in DCSSMAT are unique. The members are selected by the senior batch, everyone is required to participate in one and only one club and the events conducted by the club involve substantial planning, negotiation, and resource mobilization. Since there are nine clubs each with two to three major events in addition to the marquee event of the school, Luminance, everyone can demonstrate team spirit, leadership, innovation, entrepreneurship, social sensitivity, ethical behavior, analytical ability, and so on; all of them are also components of our valued mission. Hence, performance in the club was adopted as a third measure for indirect assessment.

FIGURE 1.4 (b): THE PEO AND PO DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

1.5 Consistency of PEOs with the Mission (5)

The PEO-Mission consistency matrix is given in Table 1.2 below followed by the rationale for it.

Table 1.5 : The PEO-Mission consistency matrix

PEO Statement	Key outcome-based operating terms in Mission
	M1 – develop professionalism	M2 – Leadership and thinking process	M3- Transformation	M4 – Society and Sustainability
PEO1: To showcase the quality of global standards within its competitive environment regardless of the endeavor in which it is engaged	High	High	High	High
PEO2: Demonstrate team spirit and leadership capabilities to bring the right kind of momentum for the organization to succeed	High	High	High	High
PEO3: To become better citizens by acquiring social awareness through ethical and moral practices in the work environment.	High	High	High	High
PEO4: The ability to create innovative and strategic ideas to become successful entrepreneurs.	High	High	High	High

Rationale for the Consistency Shown in the Consistency Matrix

PEO 1 - Global standards and being able to work in a competitive environment make a person professional. Hence PEO 1 to M1 link is highly consistent. Success in a globally competitive environment is achieved through innovation, dynamism, and thinking processes and hence the PEO 1 to M2 link is also strong. To achieve global standards, personal growth and transformation are inevitable and hence the consistency with M3 is high. Competitiveness should not be at the cost of society and stability and hence the consistency of PEO 1 with M4 is high.

PEO 2 - Team spirit and leadership are the hallmarks of a professional and hence consistency of PEO2 to M1 is high. Equally, innovation and dynamism can be possible only in a team context and with leadership. Hence the consistency of M2 is also high. Team spirit and leadership would result in personal growth and transformation and hence its consistency to M3 is high. Leaders with team spirit can understand societal needs and sustainability better than individualistic people who may be guided by narrow interests and insensitivity to the larger goals of business. Hence the consistency of PEO 2 to M4 is also high.

PEO 3- This PEO is about being a better citizen by being ethical and socially aware. Professionals must be both ethical and socially aware and hence its consistency to M1 is high. People become better citizens when they adapt their thinking process, and show dynamism and innovation. These are necessary to navigate in a VUCA world. Hence the consistency between PEO 3 and M2 is high. When one shows ethical and social awareness, one's transformation begins and hence the consistency of PEO 3 with M3 is high. Being ethical and socially aware is also central to being sensitive to societal needs and sustainable decisions, thus making the consistency of PEO 3 to M4 high.

PEO 4 - Innovative and strategic ideas and becoming entrepreneurs is the hallmark of professionals and enables them to differentiate themselves from less professional leaders. This implies that the consistency of PEO 4 and M1 is high. Innovative and strategic ideas also lead to better dynamism. Ideas in turn influence the thinking process and vice versa. Hence the consistency of PEO 4 and M 2 is high. Being entrepreneurial leads to personal transformation. Hence the consistency of PEO 4 to M3 is high. When one becomes more innovative and entrepreneurial, society gains, and social systems become more sustainable. Hence the consistency of PEO 4 to M4 is also high.

CRITERION 2	Governance, Leadership & Financial Resources	100

2.1. Governance and Leadership (60)

2.1.1. Governance Structure and Policies (25)

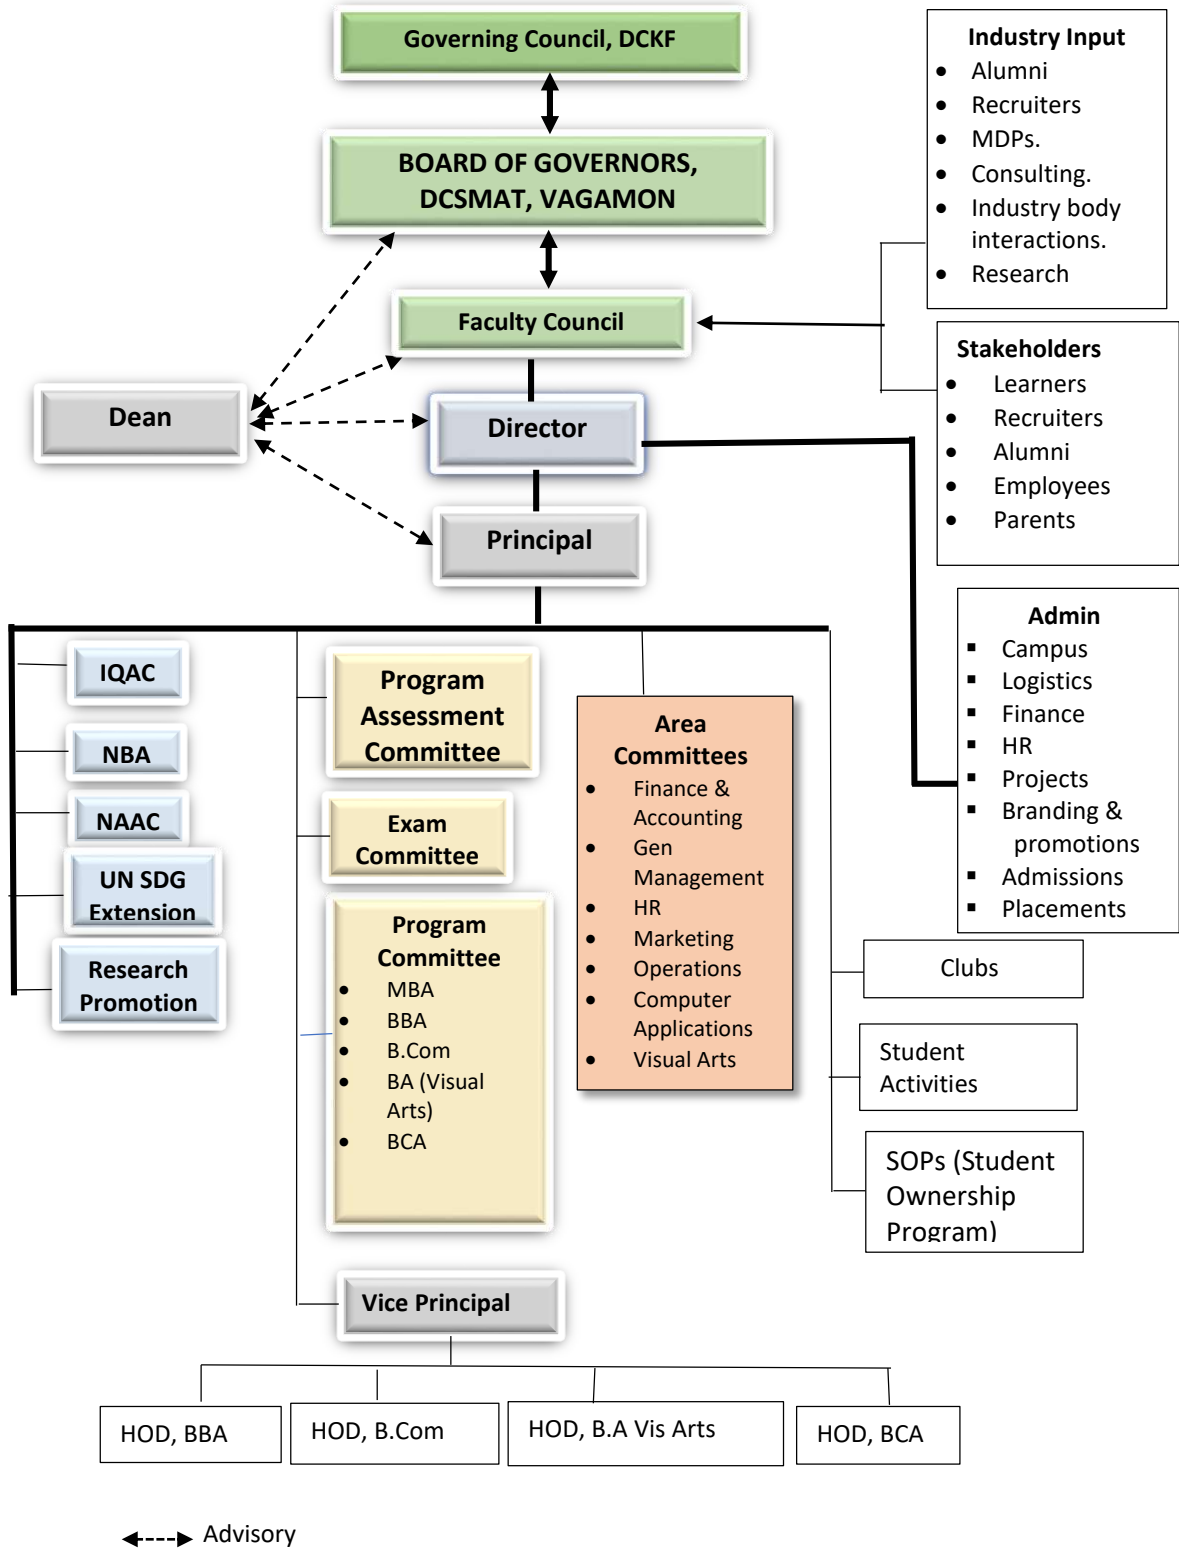

2.1.1.1. Governing Structure (10)

Overview. DCSMAT, Vagamon operates under DC Kizhakemuri Foundation (DCKF) explained under Criterion 1. DCKF has nominated a Board of Governors (BoG) for DCSMAT, Vagamon. The Faculty Council (FC) operates under the BoG. The principal and the Director facilitate the working of the FC and are part of it. The FC, principal, and the Director (if appointed) are advised by the Dean, a member of the BoG. When a Dean is not appointed formally, a member of the BoG is nominated to oversee/facilitate the school operations. The principal oversees all the academic and university-related functions while the Director oversees the administration in addition to the principal. The structure (please see Organogram given in Figure 2.1 below) is designed to enable the principal to concentrate on the academics while at the same time achieving integration of the benefits of the fully residential system with the academics to provide synergy for learner success and outcome-based learning.

Several committees or bodies operate under the FC. These are:

1. Quality and Research Related – IQAC, NAAC, NBA, UN SGD Extension and Research Promotion.
2. Program Specific – Program Assessment, Examinations and Program Committees.
3. Area committees related to functional areas - Finance & Accounting, Gen Management, HR, Marketing, Operations, Computer Applications and Visual Arts.
4. Other Statutory Committees - discipline, sexual harassment, grievances, anti-ragging, clubs etc. also have committees which are not included in the organogram.

Components of the Structure. DCKF is the society under which many institutions operate. DCSMAT, Vagamon is one of them and has a Board of Governors (BoG).

Board of Governors (BoG)

- Purpose. To govern DCSMAT, Vagamon and oversees the school which has an MBA program, and the UG programs (BBA, B.Com, B.A Visual Arts (Interior Design) and BCA. Please see an example of the BoG meeting at Annexure 2.1.1.1.
- Composition. 12 members. See table 2.1.1 (a) below.
- Frequency of Meeting. At least once in a year.
- Quorum. 60% presence including online presence.

For faculty, the school endeavors to hire them as guest faculty where feasible and then convert them into permanent since many find it challenging to adhere to the norms of a residential program (it is mandatory to be located on the campus and attend several late evening activities). The selection is done by a panel that consists of the Principal, Director, Dean, and two members from the BoG. If a guest faculty service for a semester is not possible, a site visit and individual interaction with the principal, the Director, Vice Principal, HOD, and the campus manager is ensured as far as possible before a formal appointment order is given.
2. Probation, Employment, and Induction – Probation is usually one year followed by a self-appraisal report which is assessed by the Principal and the Director and confirmation granted.
3. Other Areas Covered.
 - a) Promotion Policy and Process.

- b) Attendance Management, Pay Roll, and Salary. There is a liberal leave policy that considers the residency nature in mind.

1. ISO audit and standards. The school has adopted ISO standards since 2011 and the process continues.
2. Green Audit and standards. The school is sensitive to the environment, prevents the use of plastic, and adheres to energy-saving measures. There are major limitations to the use of solar energy since this can be effective for not more than 2 to 3 months in a year because of the excessive mist-based shade, and precipitation in the area. Wind energy has also been studied and found unsuitable. There is little or no vehicle movement on the campus and everyone walks. Beyond the Green audit which is done once in two years, the school is proactive in construction without damage to the natural rock formation, extensive fire prevention and controlling intervention to obviate and limit forest fires, water harvesting without affecting lower riparian needs, and protection of the forestry within the school premises. The school also provides the Sewerage Treatment Plant Treated water to the neighboring Cardamom plantation and has provision to collect water and provide the same to the neighborhood.

The school makes 5-year strategic plan which is reviewed for implementation every year by the IQAC and FC to identify the gaps and resolve the issues. These deliberations are intimated to the BoG for guidance and instructions. Currently, strategy plan 2022-27 is in operation. The new strategic plan is formulated sometime towards the end of the calendar year preceding the end of a strategic plan. For example, the strategic plan 2022-27 which has been put in operation in April 2023 will be made in late 2022. The existing plan (for example, 2017-22 and the ensuing plan 2022-27 will run concurrent for a few months to ensure smooth overlap and transition. The strategic plan 2022-27 is given in Annexure 2.1.1.4. The plan comes into full execution from AY 2023.

The key highlights of the current strategic plan are:

1. Operationalizing transformation through the T-shaped professional model to implement the 'professionalism' component in Mission M1; i.e., "we focus on imparting Knowledge for stakeholders to create and develop professionalism in the business world" (Refer to Figure 2.1.1.4 below on T-shaped Professional for details).
2. Defining the fully residential campus as a crucible for experimental learning that simulates the conditions in an organization and focuses on the generic competencies for learner success.
3. Career Track Focus and understanding short-term vs. long-term learner success.
4. Introduction of the hexagonal purpose statement.
5. Integrated Leadership Psychometrics.
6. Leveraging the integrated liberal professional campus.
7. Expressing the strategic imperatives in terms of goal, objectives, measures of success, and Owner.

2.1.2. Faculty Empowerment

2.1.2.1. Faculty Development Policies (5)

The faculty development covers three aspects of a faculty – teaching, research, and service.

Teaching Competency Enhancement.

1. Teaching competency enhancement is done through a review of the mid-semester, and end-semester student feedback followed by interaction with appropriate peer mentors. The focus of this intervention is pedagogical and student-orientated changes.
2. Sharing of successful and failed practices in the FC is an important method to help faculty refine pedagogical competencies.
3. Attending short courses is another method used for knowledge and skill enhancement.
4. A long-term IIM faculty development program is also subscribed to with a focus on refining Learner-Centered Teaching (case method).

Research Competency Enhancement. Fully acknowledging the lacunas in research output, the school is making several efforts to improve the research standards. To create a research environment, the school has set up an MG university research center on the campus. The weekly FC meetings start with a research presentation. Incentives exist for research. The school has not only subscribed to the EBSCO but also inculcates the habit of research among the students by having structured session in searching the EBSCO database and assignments thereof.

Service Competency Enhancement. The school is well-known for its faculty contributing to learner success through SOP (Student Ownership Program), evening presentations, midnight presentations, and Navarathna club activities. It also has an NSS unit, NSS annual camp, annual Medical camp in collaboration with nearby hospitals, eye check, and free spectacle distribution, supporting a public library, distribution of books to the nearby economically challenged schools, visit to orphanages and senior citizen home that house the extremely poor. However, realizing that such activities need focus the school has adopted UN SDGs 3, 4, and 5 (health and well-being, quality education, and gender equality) and intends to focus the work in these areas. In the ensuing 5 years the school intends to focus on training faculty on research on these areas, advocacy, and position papers along with the students so that the outreach has an academic and research orientation and becomes areas where faculty can make unique contributions.

2.1.2.2. Decentralization, Delegation of Power, and Collective Decision-Making (10)

All major decisions are taken by the FC and all faculty members are part of the FC. This model works well for the school which is a small niche institution with all faculty living on the campus. Various committees and their roles and responsibilities are given in Criterion 1. This is intended to ensure decentralized administration and agile and fast response for activities that ensure learner success. As a guideline, the process owners also get the powers of execution including the financial powers. The role of the Director is to ensure a smooth flow of funds.

Table 2.1.2: Decentralization of Financial Powers

Function	Responsibility	Financial power

2.1.3 Effective Governance (20)

2.1.3.1. Grievance Redressal Mechanism (5)

The DCSSMAT is a Small niche community of residents. Therefore the faculty and students share the same privileges and challenges. Though a formal grievance committee is in place, several practices minimize the need for triggering the formal grievance system. Examples are:

1. SOPs work intimately with the students through the day and often late in the evenings which gives the students unlimited access to the faculty. It is observed that grievances related to teaching reach the SOPs early and these are remedied immediately.
2. There are batch coordinators who interact with the batch closely at a batch level.
3. Both SOPs and batch coordinators monitor the students jointly. They interact with the parents on all matters related to the students. Both SOPs and batch coordinators have the phone numbers of the students and parents and vice versa for close interaction. Batch coordinators are facilitators and friends of the students and even seek fee payment delays if the student is in need.
4. Since both SOPs, batch coordinators, the principal, and the Director are teaching faculty, the students' grievances handling is dynamic and immediate.
5. Parent Teacher Meeting, conducted every semester acts as a forum for understanding and addressing the grievances.
6. Access to the heads of the institution is unlimited and students prefer to complain and make suggestions informally - on the walk ways, when in the canteen, during recess between sessions, and so on. Additionally, the phone numbers of all leaders are also available with the students.
7. Induction of the new students is smooth with the senior batch welcoming them with flowers and taking them around on familiarization tours along with their parents. The clubs are a great meeting point.
8. The senior batch drives the clubs but they cannot do so without the active participation of the junior batch. Club membership is through option cum selection. Interestingly, the culture of the place mandates that the senior batch muster all the resources required for a club activity and does it for the junior batch who is the primary beneficiary of the club activities.

However, as mandated there is an anti-ragging committee, sexual harassment committee, and grievance handling committee. Because of the fully residential nature, everyone on this campus understands that a grievance, not addressed immediately can spread like wildfire and therefore the resolution is immediate and proactive, which is the reason for not having any formal registered grievance. The formal grievance handling committee, anti-ragging committee, and sexual harassment committee are given at Annexures 2.1.3.1

2.1.3.2 Transparency (5)

Since all decisions come to the FC, the faculty is kept informed of all events and their progress and are part of the decision system. The minutes of an FC were sent immediately online and were signed by all in the subsequent meeting. The rules and policies related to students are given in the handbook given to the student each year at the time of induction. The students can seek input from SOPs and batch coordinators or for that matter from anyone on the campus including the Director. Communication takes place in the PTA meetings, in the class, in SOP meetings, and is also given on the website under 'Grievances' .

2.1.3.3 Leadership and Faculty Selection Process (5)

Leadership positions (Principal and the Director) are chosen by the management through a careful selection process. It often takes a long to negotiate and settle a selection because of the mandatory residential nature of the school. Creating the fit is a major challenge. For example, it took over a year of negotiation for the Director to come on board.

For the selection of the faculty and staff, a selection committee exists. This composition is the Director, principal/vice principal, Dean, HOD, and the Chief Facilitator, Ravi DC who is the Chief facilitator. The usual process is an interaction between the principal and/or the director over the phone. This is followed by a visit to the location and/or joining as a guest faculty and then when the mutual fit is reasonably sure, the faculty undergoes an interview by the selection committee. Yet another method is through references followed by the process. The reason for this method is once again the challenge of creating the fit. There is a formal system of advertisement for positions but this has not yielded good results and reference system has more impact. The main reason for this is the incoming faculty has to develop comfort with the benefits of the system vis-à-vis the challenges of re-locating to a remote area.

2.1.3.4. Stability of Academic Leaders (5)

The stability of the academic leaders can be a challenge in this location because of the schooling and remoteness. The reality is that some fall in love with the place, its values, the intimate faculty-student interaction and best practices such as SOPs, batch coordinators, and clubs. They continue and their numbers are sufficient to give effective stability. The data below shows the record of stability.

- i. No faculty who have served 10 or more years - 02
- ii. No faculty who have served 5 to 9 years - 04
- iii. No faculty who have served 2 to 5 years - 05
- iv. No of fault who have served less than 2 years- 08

2.2. Financial Resources (40)

2.2.1. Budget Allocation, Utilization, and Public Accounting at Institute Level (40)

The budget allocation in the school follows a fairly simple process. Input from the functionaries mentioned in Table 2.2.1. above is taken and an income estimate is made. Total income is estimated and thereafter principles of incremental budgeting are applied to most mandatory and routine expenses. Infrastructure including IT infrastructure is planned based on zero-based budgeting. Thereafter it is approved by the Chief Facilitator.

2.2.1.1. Adequacy of budget allocation (15)

The budget allocated during assessment years was adequate. Rs. 375 Lakhs was spent against the allocated Rs. 401 Lakhs for FY 22-23, Rs. 406 Lakh spent against the allocated Rs. 433 Lakh for FY 21-22, Rs.258 Lakh spent against the allocated Rs. 309 Lakh for FY 20-21. The shortfall in expenditure is due to less intake and change in the mode of delivery during COVID.

DC School of Management and Technology (DCSMAT) is affiliated with Mahatma Gandhi University and has formulated six POs that are specific to achieving the mission of DCSMAT through PEOs keeping in mind the POs mentioned in the MBA syllabus of the university. Till 2019, there were 10 POs which were revised to six after the new university syllabus came into force. The then NBA team made these recommendations and the FC adopted the six POs.

The revised POs are:

1. PO 1: Apply knowledge of essential business - to analyze information to develop business strategies and make critical decisions.
2. PO2: Demonstrate the skills necessary for business, research, and intelligence using analytic and critical thinking abilities with the help of Information and Communication Technology (ICT)
3. PO3: Ability to develop Value-based Leadership ability.
4. PO4: Ability to understand, analyze, and communicate global, economic, legal, and ethical aspects of business.
5. PO5: Develop leadership and interpersonal skills to promote teamwork, business
6. PO6: Exhibit the act of humanitarian values with social justice, and responsibilities and serve as positive social change agents

The revision was done by the NBA team, presented to the FC, and was adopted. The logic for the new POs and their relationship to the PEOs and alignment to the POs mentioned in the university syllabus is shown in the PEO-PO logic matrix in Table 3.00 below.

3.1. Attainment of Program Outcomes (50)

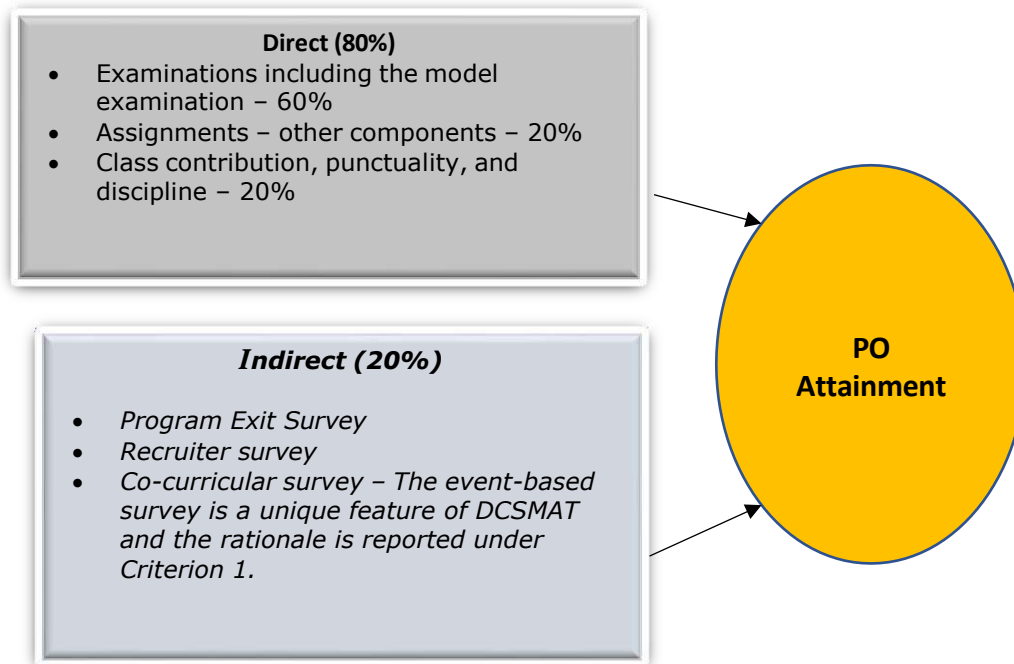

Assessment of POs and COs – Key FC Decisions of 2019

1. Assessment of POs is done through 'course-embedded assessment' for 80% (direct assessment) and perception surveys for 20% (indirect assessment). The FC made decisions and took the following actions.
2. Creating awareness among the faculty on competency movement and the link between competencies, graduate attributes and outcome-based education that leads to learner success through discussions in the FC and the Areas.
3. Though the questions in the university follow both lower and higher Bloom's taxonomy linked questions, since it is not possible to get the marks of individual answers, using the university marks may not be appropriate for the assessment of POs through Course Outcomes (COs). Hence the direct assessment is best done through the internal assessment.
4. The question papers should include POs and Bloom's Taxonomy to make the assessment more scientific and enable checks.
5. The faculty should be able to complete the PO-CO mapping and the NAC Criterion 3 owner will handle it thereafter.
6. To achieve this, a simple Excel-based automation should be developed.
7. The consolidation of PO attainment should be done both batch-wise and year-wise to get a better overview for closing the loop.
8. Though PO attainment measurement should be done in all courses to have a more holistic view. This will also train all faculty in handling the CO-PO mapping methods.
9. There must be a course workshop or course plan presentation in the FC to ensure that the faculty follows the best practices and also has the documentation appropriate for measuring PO attainment.
10. Area chairs should have discussions with the faculty on the unique features that can be included in the assessments of the courses about the area to make the PO attainment measurement more effective.
11. Criterion 3 process owner should present the outcome to the PAC and the PAC should evaluate the same and come out with closing-the-loop recommendations using two parameters: 1) Process modification, and 2) content modification. These must be presented to the FC and then to the BoG.
12. Closing the loop should be done every year in the first FCM of June.

3.1.1. Describe the assessment tools and processes used to gather the data upon which the evaluation of Program Outcome is based (15)

Tools. Direct assessment was done every semester for the respective courses. The POs were assessed using direct and indirect assessment tools. The direct assessment was done using internal examination including the model examination, assignments, and class contribution to include punctuality and discipline. The indirect assessment was done using a survey (5-point Likert scale in which the questions referred to the POs. The same is represented in Figure 3.00 below).

The indirect data collection tool (in the form of a questionnaire circulated among students and employers) is given below:

Frequency. Direct assessment was done every semester for the respective courses. Indirect was done once a year or the passing out batch.

3.1.2. POs attainment levels (35)

Computation of PO and CO. Computation of PO and CO attainment is done through a simple Excel form. Each course data is filled in a separate worksheet. Each question is traced to a CO and a PO. If it is not traced, Excel does not compute the score in the question for CO or PO. Each PO is also given a value of 1, 2 or 3 indicating low, medium or high correlation to the course. Thus PO values reported in Table 3.1.2 below is already weighted for low, medium and high correlation.

The PO attained level is reported in Table 3.1.2 below for one batch of students, i.e., 2021-23. Results for other batches are reported in Annexure 3.2.2.1.

3.2. Course Outcomes (50)

3.2.1 Describe the assessment tools and processes used to gather the data upon which the evaluation of Course Outcome is based (10)

The assessment tools used for measuring the COs were internal examination, model examinations, assignments, class contribution, punctuality, and discipline. All these are internal assessment components. The process of assessment is as follows:

1. The course outline is prepared.
2. The course is taught.
3. The examination question paper is prepared. Each question is mapped to Bloom's taxonomy level and CO.
4. The paper is evaluated and the marks are processed for CO attainment. The assignments are evaluated based on the parameters decided by each faculty and announced in the class. Typical assignment evaluation is given below:
 - i. Quantitative Methods: Problem Solving – 5 marks; Accurate Answers – 5 marks
 - ii. Marketing: Quality of content – 5 marks; Visual Presentation – 5 marks
 - iii. Entrepreneurship: Quality – 3; Participation – 4; Organization – 3 marks
5. Class contribution and discipline are perception scores while punctuality is based on punctuality for the classes measured from regularity of attendance.
6. The students are given feedback on the examinations and other evaluation components.

3.2.2 Record the attainment of Course Outcomes of all courses concerning the set attainment levels (40)

The record of attainment of the CO of all courses of the 2021-23 batch is reported in Table 3.2.2.1. There are similar records for other years and are reported in Annexures 3.2.2.1. Since the university does not provide question-wise marks or other statistical indicators of the overall performance of the cohort studying in the university, except the individual mark, the attainment is estimated on the internal assessment components. The levels are based on: 3 – High, 2- Moderate, 1 – Low.

CRITERION 4	Curriculum & Learning Process	125

4.1 Curriculum (50) (25 for affiliated institutions)

4.1.1. State the process for designing the program curriculum (10)

The university obtains input from the colleges and formulates the syllabus along with PO and issues it. The POs mentioned in the university syllabus is matched to own POs generated from the vision and mission through PEOs. This process is captured in Criterion 3. Once the school received the revised university syllabus of MBA in 2019, the FC nominated the program committee to identify the gaps to be filled and recommend how the program could be reinforced through courses/additional courses for PO and mission attainment. The Process is given in Figure 4.1.1 (a) and the identified gaps in Table 4.1.1 (b) below. The Academic Calendar is shown in Annexure 4.1.1.

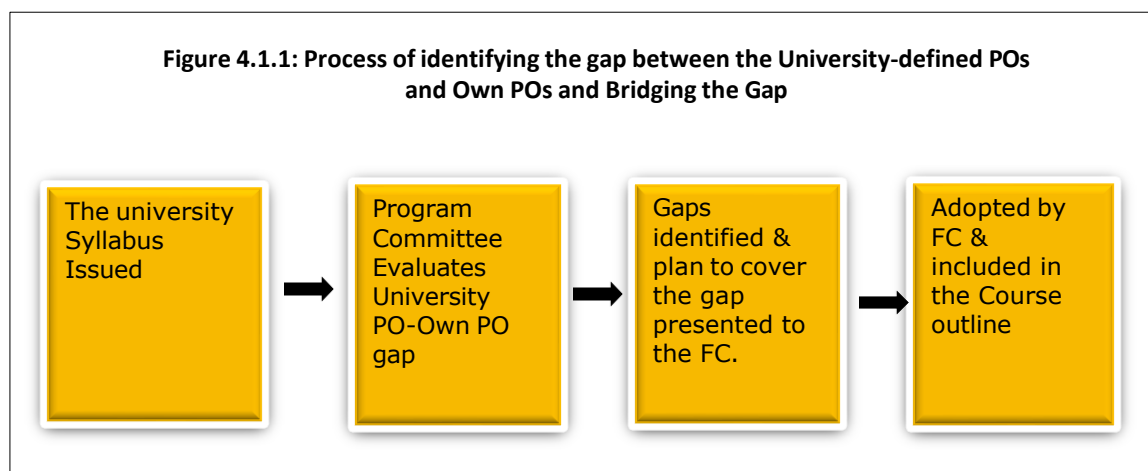

Table 4.1.1 (a): Identifying the gaps in the University POs and Own POs and Bridging the Gap

POs of DCSMAT	POs mentioned in the university syllabus UPO)	Gap Own vs. University and Gap covering

Gap Covering through Additional Training

In addition to the gap covering mentioned above, there are graduate attributes that lead to learner success which the university syllabus does not address sufficiently. These and the corresponding interventions are given in Table 4.2.

Table 4.1.1 (b): Reinforcing Graduate Attributes not Adequately Covered in the University Syllabus
Competencies/graduate attributes	Interventions
Generic Competency Building. Self-awareness, identification of career tracks and objectives, preparing a CV and defending it, performing in GD and PI are important competencies because they contribute to job-winning and learner success.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SOP (Student Ownership Program) in which cohorts of 10 to 12 were allotted a faculty to mentor. The intent was to create an Individual Development Plan for each student. • Corporate and alumni talks to determine one's career track. • Fine Dining to refine one's habits • OBT (now called OLL or Outbound Leadership Lab to identify one's strengths • Industrial visits to fine tune an understanding of the environment. • GD and PI training by experts followed by SOPs.
Communication and Self-confidence	Evening presentation and now evening and mid-night presentation and mandatory Economic Times Reading, remedial for English in the evening for identified students
Technical Competency Building. The second set are related to value added courses that give a student competitive advantage. Courses/certifications for these were identified and plans created to deliver this using external agencies	SAP certification was the intervention identified and delivered. However, from AY 2023-24, the focus is on Microsoft Excel Expert and Power BI certifications. Additionally as indicated in the T-shaped professional model mentioned in Criterion 2, learners are encouraged to pick up certifications in career track of one's choice.

4.1.4. Overall Quality and Level of Program Curriculum (15)

Being an affiliated institution, the curricular design to meet the POs is done by identifying the gaps in the university curriculum vis-à-vis own POs and then bridging the gap by augmenting the university syllabus within the course and by having additional interventions (certifications and training). These are reported in 4.1.1(a) and 4.1.1(b) above.

4.2. Learning Processes (75) (100 for affiliated colleges)

4.2.1. Describe Processes followed to improve quality of Teaching & Learning (20) (40)

a) Academic Calendar

The academic calendar is released 2 months before the beginning of every academic year. The program office monitors adherence of the schedules to the academic calendar. Deviations are reported to the Academic council and corrective actions are taken.

The Program Office headed by the Program Chair is the chief of academic administration formulating and overseeing the class schedules, matching of Faculty with the Courses, Internal Examination planning and execution, management of leaves and breaks and the curricular and co-curricular activities of the two- year MBA Course.

b) Pedagogical Initiatives

The Institution follows Course plans formulated based on Bloom's Taxonomy. The course delivery is done by including pedagogical tools of Lecture, Tutorials, Presentation, Written Assignments and Group Projects. Morning sessions are dedicated for lectures and afternoon sessions are dedicated to Tutorials and presentations. Apart from classroom presentations, there is a program called Evening Presentations (EP) from Monday to Friday. EPs are non-credit sessions to increase industry knowledge and presentation skills.

c) Quality of Class Room Teaching

Every instructor has to formulate course plans and get it approved by the Academic Council. Course workshops are conducted every year to curate the academic delivery process. Academic audits are conducted twice during a semester to suggest improvements in the teaching-learning process.

4.2.2. Quality of continuous assessment and evaluation processes (40)

Every semester has a predefined assessment scheme published in the course plan. The faculty members conduct regular internal assessments in the form of tests, presentations, written submissions and mini projects. There are two internal examinations- a midterm exam and an end term examination. Process capability of course delivery is measured through prescribed process capability matrix. Remedial measures constitute a major part in improving the low-performing students.

Each Course has Course Outcomes that match with the Program Outcomes at different and higher levels of taxonomical (Bloom's) achievement. For all questions in the Internal examinations, there are below average, average and above-average levels of achievements for the current and future improvements.

2	Assignments and other components	10	25%
3	Class Participation, Punctuality and Discipline	10	25%
Total		40	100%

4.2.3. Quality of student reports/dissertation (15) (20)

- Clarity of objectives
- Formulation of methodology
- Review of literature and citations
- Models, benchmarks, assumptions and statistical base

6.5. Faculty Initiatives on Teaching and Learning (10)

Initiative 1.

Faculty: Prof. Sanesh P. Varghese.

Nature of Initiative. Pedagogy

Problem Statement. Challenge of grasping the nuances of principles of management by students without work experience.

Overview. When a student joins MBA, after the undergraduate program, it is difficult for the person to understand the nuances of management process. Yet it fundamental to understanding about management in a business context. Having taught the course for several years and struggle with the challenge of making a student understand how planning, organizing, staffing etc. operate on ground, a this new initiative was tried out.

Brief of the Initiative Attempted. Taking advantage of long Onam holidays mandated by the university, students were asked to conduct a field study in which they interviewed managers on what they do on a typical day and on not so normal day involving some crisis management using a semi-structured questionnaire. The interviews of various student were consolidated in study groups and the students were guided to find out patterns in the work the managers do. The student cohorts were able to clearly understand the functions of management though the function of budgeting did not come out clearly. A structured feedback on the initiative from the students suggested that the initiative was effective. Feedback is filed in the course file.

Review, Impact and Replication. The initiative was peer reviewed along with the feedback and found to be an effective method to not only enhance comprehension of the vital functions of management but also a good tool to introduce them into career tracks and sector choice for their career. The initiative is easily replicable during various holidays that the students have not only in this university but also in other schools in which the students do not have work experience.

Repetition. The initiative which started in 2021 was repeated in subsequent academic years.

Publication. Published in the website of the school for open use.

Initiative No. 2

Faculty. Dr. Joby Jose

Nature of the Initiative. Pedagogy.

Problem Statement. Learner Centered approach or case method is not a strong point of university affiliated schools. The challenge is to complete the syllabus and teach in an exam oriented fashion as also dovetail the benefits of case method.

Overview. The method used was to announce the case a week in advance and ask the students to prepare the case according to a framework. The framework is important for the cohort unlike in an IIM where a framework may not be given.

Brief of the Initiative Attempted. Students were grouped into case learning cohorts. They were then asked to discuss the case and make a structured analysis of the case as per the analysis protocol developed by the faculty. The analysis was then presented in the class with the faculty facilitating the discussion. Lessons were consolidated. Differing views on an issue was encouraged with often led to animated discussion/arguments, which led to generating alternatives. Some of the cases used are:

1. Profile of Enron: The Rise and Fall
2. Corporate Governance Failure at Satyam.
3. ITC Ltd.: Towards a Triple Bottom Line Performance
4. Rajat Gupta Managing Up (A) Grace
5. ICICI Bank: Restoring Faith in Corporate Governance
6. GAIL 'Saksham' programme: Remoulding the future
7. Profile of Enron: The Rise and Fall
8. Corporate Governance Failure at Satyam.
9. ITC Ltd.: Towards a Triple Bottom Line Performance

Review, Impact and Replication. The method by default incorporates some of the insights from the flipped class rooms where the learning is driven by the students and students lead the discussion and learning. Therefore the acceptance of a new concept and generation of alternatives are more effective. The method is replicable. The challenge is to support the students and enable them to be open minded to accept views unlike that of one's own (own group view). Some of the key aspects of group dynamics such as forming, storming, and performing can be built into the exercise. The adjourning is effected by asking the students to make lessons learnt and what can be carried forward to a similar situation. The lessons from punctuated equilibrium model can also be highlighted since the duration of the exercise is short (one week) and the activities are fresh in the memory.

Repetition. The method has been repeated in several batches.

Publication. Published in the website of the school.

Initiative No. 3

Faculty. Prajith PK

Nature of the Initiative. Pedagogy

Problem Statement. Application of quantitative techniques in business remains an enigma for most MBA students. Can cases drive learning on application of quantitative techniques?

Overview. Students of MBA has a challenge of learning quantitative techniques from multiple angles. One is to pass the university examination with good results. Another is to learn its application and importance in the world of analytics today. The method that was adopted intends to bridge the gap in the minds of the students.

Brief of the Initiative Attempted. Cases were selected and given to the students. They were asked to identify the problem statement and how to solve the problem. Initially most students gave general methods to solve the problem rather than looking at it from a quantitative perspective. On the day of the case discussion, the rationale for their (learning cohort) inferences were asked. This was followed by asking them to verify these with evidence. If a cohort had used quantitative technique, the faculty leveraged it and followed that lead. The problems framed and often reframed in the class was converted into a quantitative problem and solved using pen and paper (from the university exam point of view) and by using Excel (from corporate life point of view). The initial inferences/conclusions made by the learning cohorts were reviewed in the light of quantitative evidence giving new insights for decision making. Some of the cases used are:

1. Caselet 1: Cross-sectoral dependence – An input – Output analysis.
2. Caselet2: Forecasting method for Australian Federal Government.
3. Caselet3: Stock behaviour of a corporate conglomerate.
4. Caselet4: Competence traps in a technology driven industry.
5. Caselet5: Test of representativeness of a sample of Toronto Women.
6. Case Study: Analytics empowering agriculture: Jayalaxmi Agro tech – IIM Bangalore

Review, Impact and Replication. The method is powerful and has good feedback. The challenge is the mindset of a few students who prefer a pure examination passing approach primarily because they are less endowed in quantitative techniques. However, that they can find quantitative-based solutions using Excel encourages these students to adopt the quantitative method with less resistance.

Repetition. The method has been repeated in several batches.

Publication. Published in the website of the school.

Initiative No. 4

Faculty. Dr. Baiju Samuel.

Nature of the Initiative. Content and Pedagogy

Problem Statement. Managing change can be an abstract subject for most MBA student cohort without work experience. Cases therefore tend to less effective as they have no work experience and they have not seen an organization. How to make a student understand the nuances of change management?

Overview. Story telling is an effective way of learning management. Taking inspiration from this, book review cum story telling method was introduced in the course on organizational transformation and change.

Brief of the Initiative Attempted. The students reviewed a book such as “Who moved my Cheese?”. Thereafter they were asked to narrate a story along the same line as the book but with incidents from their life. The story had to end with an analysis of the story using Kotter’s 8 steps of change. By creating their own content set to a pattern in the book, the students were able to correlate real life to the book. This formed the base for further case-driven teaching of the course.

Review, Impact and Replication. The method has been replicated in several batches with positive reviews. The feedback suggests that other books such as “My Iceberg is melting” or “Animal Farm” could be used. An add-on to this method could be a short film competition on their story of change with a summary of the key steps of Kotter used by them.

Repetition. The method has been repeated in several batches.

Publication. Published in the website of the school.

6.6. Faculty Performance, Appraisal and Development System (10)

Performance Appraisal. Currently faculty appraisal is based on self-appraisal consisting of 3 parameters, i.e., academic, research and institutional development with 40, 30 and 10 points respectively. Self-appraisal form is given at Annexure 6.6. From the current academic year, the appraisal methodology is being modified to allot 100 points to teaching (40), research (30) and institutional development (30) and there will be both self-appraisal and one level of joint supervisory appraisal (by the Principal and Director and/or Dean or a representative of the BoG).

b) Involvement of Alumni in Placement

Alumni are the face of the institute in the market who have proved themselves. Based on the alumni, people judge the college. They are the ones who make their institute proud and the current students look up to them as mentors for a successful career.

Every alumnus is connected with the college through faculty and placement cells.

DC School of Management and Technology School has a huge active alumni network who are associated with the institute through various programs like

- They mentor students on an individual basis.
- They are some of the top guest facilities.
- They take regular interactive sessions to share their corporate experience.
- They actively participate in facilitating student placements.

Alumni have been praised time and again for their active role in successful placements. Not only alumni have created a positive image of the institute in the market but they proved to be a great help in terms of convincing their companies and HR department to run a recruitment spree on the campus. College keeps a complete track of alumni job profile and their rank in the company.

Involvement of Alumni in Academic Quality improvement

Maintaining affinity with alumni after graduation can provide invaluable, lifelong support to higher education institutions. Engaged alumni will support their university both financially and in other meaningful ways. Students are at college for a (relatively) short period and are alumni for their entire lives, so the foundation of their relationship with the university is built well before they become alumni. It's relatively easy for students to lose their affinity for their college, but it's difficult for it to develop after they have left if they didn't enjoy their experience. Build lifelong relationships by making current students feel valued, and make it clear the journey doesn't end as soon as they graduate.

- c) ✓ Alumni can support in: -
- d) ✓ Donating money
- e) ✓ Volunteering on committees and boards
- f) ✓ Attending on-campus events to give back to the university community
- g) ✓ Mentoring current students
- h) ✓ Supporting recent graduates as they start their career
- i) ✓ Giving back to the alumni community
- j) The alumni relationship with their alma mater should not be one way. Effective alumni outreach should include offers of professional and personal support such as professional networking events and career services, continuing education opportunities, and use of campus facilities.

9.3. Methodology to connect with Alumni and its implementation (15)

Current Process

a) Alma Connect Portal

DCSMAT Alma Connect is an interpersonal organization dependent on private graduated class systems concentrated on helping an alum/understudy get confided in help from his/her graduated class arrange. Help extending from landing referrals for positions, guidance for professions, proposals for administrations, presentations, and raising money to simply inquiring as to whether anybody is heading out from New York to Delhi in the following week and can convey a little bundle.

b) Monthly News Letter

Month to month bulletin and week after week update messages go about as a hotspot for graduated class to remain refreshed with such occurring at their school and regularly bring out wistfulness and a feeling of pride. DCSMAT Alumni pamphlet is distributed month to month and highlights energizing and most recent news from grounds, workforce research, and forthcoming graduated class occasions and openings.

c) Alumni Portal on the Website of DCSMAT.

DCSMAT has a graduated class system, formal or not, and they're utilized for a wide scope of things. Graduated class can build up business associations, compose reunions, and fill in as brilliant illustrations of the sort of individuals that their foundation produces.

d) Database:

DCSMAT is currently in touch with around 2500 alumni even though more than 3000 students have passed out of DCSMAT. Before the Alumni Portal was put in place the database was recorded only in the form of excel sheets and consolidated a few years ago with around 2500 alumni listed. It has since doubled after the online portal and social media platforms were put in place.

Faculty in Charge:

Ms. Asha Thomas Fenn and Dr. Joby Jose are Coordinators - Alumni Affairs of DCSMAT. He has over 12 years of experience as Assistant professor in Finance and related subject.

CRITERION 10	Continuous Improvement	50
---------------------	-------------------------------	-----------

The institution places a great deal of importance on the monitoring and reformulation of the process of continuous improvement. It uses two measures: 1) quantitative and 2) qualitative. The quantitative metrics used is CO attainment and PO attainment (direct measures). The qualitative metrics used are indirect PO attainment and audit feedbacks.

The PO attainment target was decided as follows:

1. Exceeds Expectation (EE) – 70% and above which works out to a score of 56 and above for direct and 14 and above for indirect assessment given the 80:20 ration in which the table 10.1 above is computed.
2. Meets Expectation (ME) - 60 to 69% which works out to a score of 48 to 55 for direct and 12 to 13 for indirect assessment given the 80:20 ration in which the table 10.1 above is computed.
3. Below Expectation (BE) – Below 60% which works out to a score 47 and below for direct assessment and 11 and below for indirect assessment given the 80:20 ration in which the table 10.1 above is computed.

Though there were some concern in the FC that the below expectation standard is too tough or rigorous, the school decided to adopt it and strive to achieve and surpass it.

10.1 Actions taken based on the results of evaluation of each of the POs (20)

Table 10.1 below gives the PO attainment.

Table 10.1: PO Attainment

PO	CAYm2 (2020-21)			CAYm1 (2021-22)			CAY (2022-23)
	Direct (80%)	Indirect (20%)	Overall (100%)	Direct (80%)	Indirect (20%)	Overall (100%)	Direct (80%)	Indirect (20%)	Overall (100%)
PO1: Analyse and make decisions	21.35	14.9	36	43.12	13.82	57	54.80	16.39	71.19
PO2: Use of ICT	30.48	15.1	46	41.08	14.36	55	52.91	16.64	69.55
PO3: Value-based leadership	30.32	14.9	45	43.86	14.35	58	50.70	16.43	67.13
PO4: Economic, legal and ethical	32.19	15.0	58	46.15	14.38	61	55.90	16.52	72.42
PO5: Teamwork, ethics, value and integrity	50.44	15.3	66	65.89	15.08	81	62.49	17.38	79.87
PO6: Social responsibility and change	44.26	15.6	60	61.29	15.33	77	59.27	17.28	76.55

General Inferences of PO Attainment.

Indirect measure shows that no PO attainment is below expectation, however, direct measurement shows that 5 POs are below expectation in CAYm2, 4 in CAYm1 and none in CAY showing continuous improvement. Therefore, the key lies in focusing on direct assessment.

Summary of Action Taken after Diagnosis – PO wise Analysis and Action Taken

PO1: Analyse and make decisions.

Action and Result till CAY. Competency to analyze and take decision is a key competency of a manager. This spans all courses. Hence all faculty were directed to focus more on the analytical aspects. The challenge in CAYm2 was handling courses online due to COVID. However, the teaching focused on asking students to define a problem, identify the factors that affect solving the problem, identify the critical factors, then arrive at a minimum of 3 options to solve the problem followed by recommending a viable solution after considering the advantages and disadvantages of these. This shift has given good dividends (see the PO attainment progression chart below).

The way Beyond CAY. In CAY, this PO is just below exceeds expectation level score of 56. Since this was only 21.25 in CAYm2, the method adopted has shown result and therefore the same should be continued with additional focus on those who are weak in analysis and decision making. Since the intake score has improved in CAY, it is expected that the increase in the intake quality with focus on those who are weak will help the school achieve 'exceeds expectation' standards in the ensuing years.

PO2: Use of ICT

Action and Result till CAY. The school recognizes the importance of ICT and has taken important measures to address the lacunas that emerged in the PO attainment analysis. The school introduced ICT based analysis in the class. Most importantly, it started SAP certification to give the students an ICT acumen. The score improved from 30.48 in CAYm2 to 52.91 in CAY. However, student feedback indicated that while all the students attended the SAP program, only a few (17 students) felt confident to handle SAP certification.

The way Beyond CAY. The school acknowledges that since most students are from the BBA/B.Com stream, up scaling ICT is a challenge though it is the most important competency in the contemporary business scenario. From the current year the school has introduced Microsoft Excel Expert Certification which is a more generic ICT tool and has granted scholarship for the same. It has also introduced Power BI certification. Going ahead, it is expected that the school will be able to achieve 'exceed expectation standards'.

PO3: Value Based Leadership.

Action and Result till CAY. The measure in CAYm2 was an eye opener. Though the indirect measure indicated 14.9 which is in the category of EE, the direct measure shows a different input. Direct measure of value based leadership is difficult. However, in a case situation, the student can identify the value conflicts and take more value-based decision. The way of measuring it was refined and the effort was to identify if a student can identify the value related challenges in the case situation and recommend solutions. This has helped to improve the score from 30.42 in CAYm2 to 50.70 in CAY.

The way Beyond CAY. Going ahead, there would an effort to have small group and SOP based discussion on values. The school has adopted UN SDGs, 3, 4 and 5 for its extension action. The effort would to encourage students to evaluate every extension project including the NSS in the light of values. Rather than the values somewhat vague, the school proposes to define it core values and take actions such as discussions forums, street plays, poster competitions that propagate the core values. Creating a few value champions is also on the anvil.

PO4: Economic, Legal and Ethical Aspects

Action and Result till CAY. The score of 32.19 in CAYm2 improved to 55.90 in CAY. This is largely due to the evening presentation that included these topics. Greater focus on the course on Business law and Industrial Relations has helped to achieve this improvement. Case studies introduced in the course on business law has also helped.

The way Beyond CAY. Going ahead, the school has introduced a period for reading Economic Times. The school hopes that the student will develop his/her competency for considering economic, legal and ethical aspects.

PO5: Teamwork, ethics, value and integrity

Action and Result till CAY. This PO attained ME in CAYm2 and shown an improvement in CAYm1 but has shown a minor dip in CAY. One of the reasons for this could be the reliability of the metrics. The school has decided to go along with the current metrics of measuring it in the courses till the end of 2023-24 and then re-evaluate the result to understand the efficacy of the measuring tool. The way Beyond CAY. The school will re-evaluate the situation after it gets the score at the end of AY 2023-24 and then make changes if necessary.

PO6: Social responsibility and change

Action and Result till CAY. Social responsibility and change. After being in the BE, in CAYm2 and improving to EE in 2021-22, the score has shown a dip to 59.27. Though still in EE, the trend is a cause for concern. One of the reasons for this could be the reliability of the metrics. The school has decided to go along with the current metrics of measuring it in the courses till the end of 2023- 24 and then re-evaluate the result to understand the efficacy of the measuring tool.

The way Beyond CAY. The school will re-evaluate the situation after it gets the score at the end of AY 2023-24 and then make changes if necessary.

Overall, the interventions carried out by the school has helped in progressing the PO attainment (see figures 10.1a and 10.1 b).

10.2. Academic Audit and actions taken thereof during the period of Assessment (10)

Table 10.2 Academic Audit and actions taken

Audit Point	Action Taken
Competency enhancement to improve placements should be addressed	The school introduced training by Lifechefs for VC writing, GD and PI in the second year of training. Training by SAP labs has been tried out though it did not have a salutary effect. The program has been revamped completely from the current academic year after evaluating the effect of the above training. These initiatives are: Using the T-shaped professional model, a cohesive rationale and matching interventions have been included for generic and technical competency enhancement. This includes identifying one’s purpose, and strengths using psychometrics and mapping these to job roles. Generic competency enhancement includes creating Individual Development Plan and executing it with the assistance of SOPs, Outbound Leadership Lab using Kolb’s learning cycle and an adapted reflection diary, Microsoft Excel Expert certification and Power BI certification for all with scholarship for the Excel Expert and free training for Power BI, CV preparation intervention in the first year of study followed by GD and PI training in the first year of study, aptitude test training from the first year and continuing till the end of III semester, and refinement training to include communication, grooming, and one on one PI with assistance from the corporate. The technical competency enhancement for the first job role includes enhancing the number of electives to increase options, targeted talks and discussion for the career track, and doing at least two online courses and getting certification in the career track chosen by the student. The school promotes career tracks in Capital

	Market, Banking, Digital HR and HR Analytics, Sales and Distribution, Digital Marketing, and Logistics.
University Performance needs definite improvement and effort should be made to create a mark in the university. Tutorials to address the weak students which is in existence alone is not sufficient.	Concentrated effort was made to raise the level of students at two levels. One, greater success of those endowed with better academic acumen. This has shown initial signs of success with two rank holders among the top 10 university ranks in CAY. Identifying potential low performers and coaching them (more importantly motivating them with achievement orientation) has increased success in terms of increase in the pass percentage by 74.6%. The introduction of Parent-Teacher Meetings once in a semester (Semesters I to III) has been introduced and is expected to have a complimentary effect.
The OBT which is done every year should be more meaningful	The OBT has been renamed as Outbound Leadership lab with 7 objectives [1) Taking Initiative, 2) Handling Ambiguity, 3) Facilitating Team Cohesion, 4) Being Empathetic, 5) Self-confidence, 6) Supporting Others, and 7) Ability to accept feedback & criticism) and matching dairying system using the concept of Kolb's Learning cycle. The OBT has been now divided into two parts; one by an external trainer and the second by in-house trainers (currently Prof. Jayan and Dr. Baiju Samuel). This was done because the external trainers are often are wary of using advanced scientific tools such as dairying using Kolb's learning cycle.
Extension work – the school should have a focus area for extension work and it should note that the extension work should also have an intellectual contribution.	The FC has adopted UN SDGs 3, 4 and 5 for extension work and focus on these areas. Rather than confine to a mere action, the school has asked faculty to work on advocacy paper and point of view papers which can help the community in general. For example, analysis of the clientele in the medical camp should lead to creating a strategic plan to address this issue.

Introduction of cases in the classes	All faculty members have agreed to introduce cases in the courses.
Creating practical experience is a part of experiential learning. The school should focus more on this area.	Corporate talks and projects are an important way of gaining practical experience. These have been followed for a while now. From the ensuing academic year, it is proposed to include application exercises as part of the curriculum. For example, doing a stock market exercise, doing a study on the performance of banks, Johari Window etc.
Feedback of the students should be addressed	The school addresses the feedback of the students with focus and urgency. In addition to the mid-semester student feedback on focused action taken place, the school has introduced informal interaction with the student cohort to gain some insight. Though open feedback from the student community (feedback with the names of the feedback giver) can be very valuable, many students are not likely to be uncomfortable with this mode. Hence, the current system of anonymous feedback should continue but qualitative feedback on a conversation basis has been now included.

Action Taken on Key Points Raised in the BoG meeting dated 22.4.2022

Vision of Deemed University. The Govt. is still mulling the modalities of both 4 year UG programs and implementation of NEP. The state Govt. is slow in permitting the Deemed University status and prefers private universities in the state though no formal decision has been taken on this. Research and investigation indicated that the school should first focus on NBA and NAAC and enhance its accreditation as a prelude to seeking a university status. The issue will continue to receive the attention of the school.

Authorization of CF. No action required by the school. However, the school commenced its work to submit the documents to submit the SAR for NBA and work on NAAC re-accreditation, III cycle.

Schedule of Meeting. The schools is making effort to conduct meetings every six months.

Follow up the Suggestions by Members.

1. Change in Policies. This is being monitored though its progress of implementation would have to wait. The actions taken by the MG University is crucial before we take any decisions.
2. The effect of the pandemic continues on the student's academic culture. Student Ownership Program (SOPs) were directed to address this issue.
3. The introduction of International Relations was considered and it was felt that is an apt suggestion when we attain the university status.
4. Governance. Currently the school has a decentralized structure with the FC being at the center of the decision making, monitoring and execution. This has yielded good results. The BoG may appoint suitable supervisors to monitor this process though the FC reports regularly to the CF, Ravi DC through informal and formal channels.
5. Entrepreneurship. The school agreed to explore how this aspect can be energized further.
6. The challenge of communication and soft skills was acknowledged. The school explored this and came out with the T-shaped professional model which is highlighted in the Strategic plan. The idea to have a series of intervention directed at the generic competencies which form the horizontal portion of the T and technical competencies which form the vertical portion of T.
7. The school has introduced online course that are customized to students' interest area much like a course of independent study. This should bring in the basics of lifelong learning.

Revision will be effected as mentioned above only on the performance of the concerned teacher both in academic and extracurricular activities.
- 5.2.6 In case of necessity the management will take the appraisal at any time during the academic year and if any teacher is found deficient in performance he/she will be issued with a letter asking him/her to improve the performance within the stipulated time. The duration of the time will be fixed by the management. His/her continuance in service depends entirely upon his/her performance during this period.
- 5.2.7 Those who have done long duration FDP in IIM, M. Phil or PhD will have to produce documentary evidence by the end of June to highlight the specific contribution made to the Institute due to such certification they have. The continuation of any allowance against this will be based on the extent of contribution made (An example would be a funded research project brought in by the teacher).

COMMUNICATIONS

6.1 Staff meetings

The Director/Head of the Institution will convene staff meetings to discuss all aspects. Staff meeting shall be conducted on a regular basis. All the important matters, policy decisions etc will be communicated through these meetings. No one is allowed to stay away from the staff meeting with out substantial reason in writing. Every staff should come to the meeting on time. If any staff refuses to attend staff meetings without substantial reason in writing he/she will attract disciplinary action.

6.2 E-Mail

Staff members will be provided a DCSMAT e-mail ID (Web mail) for official purpose during their tenure at DCSMAT. All the academic and non-academic matters, important decisions etc will be communicated through e-mail also. Staff members are requested to get the official ID from the System Department and open the mails regularly as the authorities may send the official notices via e-mail.

6.3 E Mail Etiquette

6.2.1 Title

Clearly summarize your message in the subject line. Properly titled messages help people organize and prioritize their e-mail.

6.2.2 Contents

Do not combine multiple issues in one e-mail. Split the e-mail for each subject accordingly.

6.2.3 Use of 'CC'

Don't use the CC (Carbon Copy) function to copy your message to everyone. This is particularly true at work. These days everyone receives too much e-mail. Unnecessary messages are annoying. If only a few people really need to receive your message, only direct it to them. Even in DCSMAT, people spend a substantial amount of time deleting unnecessary mails without even opening them.

6.2.4 Don't use 'Reply to All' Indiscriminately

Similarly, when responding to e-mail, do not respond to all recipients. Select only those addresses who really need to know your response. Do not flood others' inboxes; by doing so the really important mails will get ignored.

6.2.5 Use of Group Mail IDs/Addresses

Similarly do not misuse the group e- mail id facility of the institution. In many cases it has become a matter of drill to insert the group ids in the 'to' or 'cc' columns.

6.2.6 Use of 'BCC' (Blind Carbon Copies)

Avoid unless absolutely necessary. By using BCC, each recipient sees only two addresses - theirs and yours. And within own organization, there is really no need to hide to whom all you have endorsed copies. The real purpose of BCC function is different.

6.2.7 Keep your messages short and focused

Few people enjoy reading on their computer screens; fewer still on the small smart phone screens and other mobile devices. Recipients tend to ignore long messages.

6.2.8 Avoid using all capital letters

IT MAKES IT LOOK LIKE YOU'RE SHOUTING! IT'S ALSO MORE DIFFICULT TO READ.

6.2.9 Don't write anything you wouldn't say in public

Anyone can easily forward your message, even accidentally. This could leave you in an embarrassing position if you divulged confidential information, made a nasty comment about someone or circulated an off-colour joke.

6.2.10 Check Your Spelling and Grammar

Do not send e-mail in haste. Re-read, correct and then only send. Slang should be avoided, as also the text (SMS) message abbreviations many use nowadays. It's best to be clear and concise and use simple language.

6.2.11 Avoid sending e-mail to large number of people

Unless you have a legitimate reason to do it, avoid sending e-mail to large number of people. E-mail sent to many recipients may be considered spam.

Avoid Nasty e-mail. If you're angry, remember that an email sent in haste can't be recalled. So do not be hasty nor nasty in your e mails. An Email, Once Sent, Can Never Be Unsent.

6.2.12 Avoid Involving Students in Internal Communications

This needs to be avoided at all costs. Internal differences of opinions amongst the staff/faculty, if any, should not be carried over to the students.

“Change is nature’s law”

The management reserves the right to effect any change at any time in the Staff Manual.

STRATEGIC PLAN

(Refers to 2.1.1.4)

DCSMAT, VAGAMON STRATEGIC PLAN 2022-27

Introduction

DCSMAT follows a rolling strategic plan with a 5 year span. Strategic plan based on which this SAR is generated is for the period 2017-22 and Strategic Plan 2022-27 (current operational plan)

Strategy Formulation Process

The commencement of making a strategic plan or revision begins with the first FCM in January each year. The FC nominates a strategic planning committee which evaluates the implementation completed till December of the previous year and then modifies (annual process) or formulates (five year process) a plan. Input from the stake holders (industry, alumni, parents, students and faculty are taken). The committee does a SWOT analysis and an environmental scan to identify major changes on the anvil. Thereafter a plan is generated which is placed before the FC, which approves the same after refinement. The plan is thereafter presented to the BoG by the Director and adopted. The planning process is given in Figure 1 below.

SWOT Analysis

Strengths <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highly committed leadership and foundation with a truly decentralized system. • Exceptional empathy and focus on social and environmental responsibility by the promoters. • Kerala’s (and perhaps) India’s only truly residential school where 100% students, faculty and staff live together mandatorily. • Brand trust of DC Books which has orchestrated the school. • Ample time, access and guidance for self-development. • Organizational architecture suited for a liberal professional education with exceptional bandwidth. • Well experienced faculty with average teaching experience of 20 years. • Intimate mentoring support because of co-living of faculty and students. 	Opportunities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learner focus and outcome can be created and leveraged. • Capability to expand into autonomous system leveraging NEP 20. • Good place for faculty growth. • Capability to introduce multiple programs. • Ample opportunity conducting for value added courses to augment the university system.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to a very well stocked library with long open hours and substantial electronic resources. • Substantial infrastructure space far more than mandated by regulations and mini-township facility. • Ample campus with expansion feasibility. • Aesthetic environment with temperate climate which facilitates long hours of work without fatigue. • Pollution free green environment with no stress and time consumption in travel.
Weaknesses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relatively remote location which makes logistics challenging. • Weather that demands constant infrastructure maintenance. • Location can create student boredom unless they are given challenging tasks continuously. 	Threat <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Slow response of the university system to the learner needs. • Need for committed faculty who are willing to adopt the residential system. • Entry of foreign schools.

Vision and Mission

The vision of DCSMAT, Vagamon is “Endeavour persistently to Develop Leaders and thinkers for industry and society through innovative academic practices.”

The mission components are:

- ✚ M1. We focus on imparting Knowledge for stake holders to create and develop professionalism in business world.
- ✚ M2. We focus on innovation and dynamism in academic processes for developing leadership skills and thinking processes.
- ✚ M3. We facilitate personal growth and transformation of Stakeholders.
- ✚ M4. We take initiatives to imbibe qualities among our stake holders for a better orientation to society and sustainability.

Competency and Outcome Based Education for Learner Success

Learner success can be defined in the short term as getting an entry level job in the chosen career track of the individual subject to the market realities. This implies that the student may not get job in the chosen sector or career track at times due to the market condition but would have the competencies which can help a learner veer to the chosen career track in due course, with appropriate competency enhancement. For example, one may have the career goal for a job in an investment bank or an analytical firm but may not be able to get it immediately after the MBA program but has a career start that would help the person move towards that as one progresses in the career.

Long term learner success is defined as being happy by achieving ones SMART goals in career, health, financial stability, and family, social and spiritual aspects.

Outcome based education in our context is defined as attaining the competencies or graduate tributes that enable mission accomplishment, with competency level appropriate for a fresh graduate.

Key Differentiations

DCSMAT differentiates itself on the following aspects:

- 1. Transformation. The school focuses on transformation of the learners through holistic development, attitude change, communication and competency developments, life and career track focus. To achieve transformation we follow the T-shaped professional model adapted to our environment. T-shaped professionals are those with a broad understanding of management and a deep knowledge of the career track which makes them efficient in execution (See Figure 2). A full description of the T-shaped professional is given at Appendix to the strategic plan.

Career Success

- 2. Fully Residential Campus. A fully residential campus that emulates a 'gurukul' with all learners, faculty, staff and resources co-located in a 32 acre integrated mini-township that facilitates the transformation. A residential campus is differentiated from a school with a hostel. In a residential campus the faculty, staff and students live alongside in a dynamic interaction context. The campus has many activities beyond the traditional academic hours where people interact intimately and execute projects. The students form groups for these activities themselves, set goals, generate resources, confront the reality of workplace politics, face intense interpersonal and task conflicts, learn to resolve conflicts, practice work-life balance, monitor and regulate oneself, compete and collaborate in a 24x7 crucible and learn to live and work with people unlike themselves, which is an effective model of workplace reality. This is the uniqueness of a residential campus.

3. Holistic Development

- ✦ Purpose statement development that enables a learner to create goals covering various aspects of life.
- ✦ Focus on a healthy mind in a healthy body through recreational facilities, and cultural activities on a 24x7 basis.
- ✦ Design of the school that gives reasonable physical activity through daily routine.

4. Enhanced Learner Success

- ✦ Fully residential design which enables unlimited 24x7 learner-learning facilitator interaction.
- ✦ Matching learning resources – library, digital and physical resources.
- ✦ Unmatched support for transition from campus to corporate through placement focused training.
- ✦ Opportunity to explore beyond traditional academics.

5. Career Track Focus. Early guidance to explore and decide on career tracks.

- ✦ Purposing.
- ✦ Career specialization and career track focus creation and follow through.

6. Unique Pedagogy

- ✦ Focus on case-based pedagogy to enhance analytical and critical thinking.
- ✦ Learning by doing through projects.
- ✦ Support for university exams.

7. Advanced Self-development and Leadership Interventions

- ✦ Self-development for all through purposing, communication sessions, newspaper reading, corporate talks, Outbound Training and intense club activities.
- ✦ Unique facility of Integrated Transformational Leadership Lab using multiple psychometric tools that cover self, interpersonal and leadership factors eventually leading to creating an Individual Development Plan and focusing on Individual Development through Student Ownership Program (SOP).

8. Liberal Professional Integrated Environment. Design of the programs that enables interaction of specialists in management, computer technology, liberal arts, architecture and so on.

Strategic Goals and Objectives

T-SHAPED PROFESSIONAL: DETAILS OF

(Refers to 2.1.1.4)

THE T-SHAPED PROFESSIONAL

Mission component 1 (or M1) of DCSMAT, Vagamon states "we focuses on imparting Knowledge for stake holders to create and develop professionalism in business world". Hence creating a professional for business world is one of the most important tasks the school has to undertake. The school's intent is to create a T-shaped professional. Refer to the Figure below.

The horizontal portion of the T focus on creating a professional with competencies for life and career. These competencies are career agnostic and would be required no matter in what career track one embraces. In more formal terms, these are generic competencies that that are portable for sector to sector and job profile to job profile. From a curricular perspective, the core courses help develop these competencies. From a co-curricular perspective, there are many interventions that help in developing these competencies. These interventions are discussed below.

S No	Intervention	Competency
1	Purpose statement using hexagonal model	Self-awareness competency with insight into one's career, health, financial, family, social, spiritual. Involves SMART goal setting in these areas.
2	Objective driven Outbound Leadership Lab (OLL) using Kolb's Learning Cycle	Learning competency using concrete experience, reflection, generalization and adoption in a new context. DCSMAT's has developed a Reflection diary to help develop this competency. The diary can be used in all contexts, though introducing it happens in the OLL.
3	Johari Window and Psychometric driven self-development	Competency to make scientific choice on critical matters depends on identifying one's strengths. The purpose of Johari Window is to enhance awareness of one's competencies and the purpose of the psychometrics is to enhance the self-awareness beyond the obvious. When these are put together, one gets a better picture of true-self vis-à-vis the perceived self. Identification of the gap helps to create an Individual Development Plan (IDP) to achieve the purpose identified.
4	Career choice exploration	This intervention consist of corporate talks, Breakfast with the CEO, Fine dining, and sector study and develops the competency to understand one's career SMART goals vis-à-vis the market realities.
5	SOP (Student Ownership Program) driven by Individual Development Plan (IDP)	SOP is akin to mentoring. But SOP is different from mentoring because the intent of the SOP is to arrive at an IDP scientifically and then work with the mentor to execute the plan. It is a highly focused intervention.
6	Communication Competency Development	This is done through newspaper reading (reading and comprehension competency), and evening and mid-night presentation series besides GD training (conversation competency differentiated from presentation competency)

7	News-paper reading	The purpose of dedicated newspaper (Economic Times) reading session is not only to enhance the reading and comprehension competency but also the competency for understanding the global events and analytical ability by reading the analysis of events in the paper.
8	Microsoft Excel Expert and Power BI	These are the ICT interventions for job readiness. These are career track and sector agnostic competencies that are foundational to enable analytics, pattern finding, critical thinking, and consequently creative thinking competencies.
9	Integrated Leadership Development	This is a psychometric driven intervention that integrates psychometric inputs on self (Big 5 personality test, Self-efficacy, Locus of Control, and Emotional Intelligence), interpersonal orientation and leadership. The differences is that there is an integrating protocol which given new insight different from the individual insight which each of these instruments give.
10	Clubs-driven competency development	The 9 clubs of DC are unique because they conceive, muster resources and conduct major events for others. These clubs are not a conglomeration of like-minded people, but are selected through a rigorous selection process and intent of the club is to organize the events for others (junior batch). The events are not for themselves. Managing and organizing for others is akin to creating product and services for customers and selling it. For example, if a debate event is planned for the junior batch or other schools and is not subscribed, it would be akin to a product failure. Thus the clubs become forums that replicate real-world managerial context.
11	Entrepreneurial Orientation	Entrepreneurial orientation is developed through the core course and the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Centres (IEDC) under Kerala Start Up mission. The focus on clubs and the marquee event, Luminance of DCSMAT is also entrepreneurial in nature.
12	Core courses	The core courses, of course, develop several competencies that are generic and transportable.
13	Job Winning Competency	The is a cluster of interventions to include discussion on career track, CV writing and refining, GD, Interview skills, personal

	Enhancement (CV, GD and Interview Competency Enhancement)	grooming, and simulated one on one interview training with feedback. In the simulated interview, a student is required to apply for a job using a JD and face the interview by a team of interviewers. Oral and written feedback is given after the interview.
14	Specializations	Currently the university permits only dual specialization in which the students have to complete 4 courses (12 credits) each in the two specializations they choose. For example, 4 courses in Marketing and HR. The student does not have a choice of doing more credits than 12 credits in any specialization. Though this gives some flexibility to the students to face the job market, most companies look for graduates with a sharp focus. Hence the vertical component of the T is designed to augment the university specified credits with credits that meet the career track goals. Hence, the students are encouraged to take value added courses that are customized to one's career goals. For example, a person may take a course in use of AI for recruitment and selection or SEO in digital marketing to augment one's competencies for a career. Being customized for the career track, the choice is left to the students who make take it from any online source such as Coursera, Swayam etc.
15	Internship and Projects	Students are encouraged to do internship and projects that can augment their career track goals. For example a project on analysis of banks' performance using CAMEL model could be done by someone with a career track goal in banking using skills gained from Excel Expert certification or using Power BI or someone with a career track goal in digital marketing could do a project for a company that s/he may solicit.
